

Air Force Office of Special Investigations (AFOSI). FAC: 6100

CATCODE: 610915

OPR: SAF/IG

OCR: AFOSI

1.1. Description. There are two types of AFOSI units: Regions and Detachments. Regional offices include units that are aligned with MAJCOMs and field investigation squadrons that align with NAF located overseas. Regional offices exercise command and control over detachments and act as directorates at the MAJCOM and NAF headquarters. A detachment can be a special unit, an investigative unit, or a combination of both.

1.2. Requirements Determination. AFOSI (Logistics Division) assists in the planning of AFOSI facilities and makes final determinants on the requirements of proposed projects in accordance with the AMC Air Force Office of Special Investigations Facilities Design Guide. Contact OPR for additional information and guidance.

1.3. Scope Determination. See FC-6 CG-61 Admin Overview paragraph 1.7, Table 1.1 and the AMC Air Force Office of Special Investigations Facilities Design Guide.

1.4. Dimensions. See the AMC Air Force Office of Special Investigations Facilities Design Guide.

1.5. Design Considerations. See the AMC Air Force Office of Special Investigations Facilities Design Guide.
