

Updated: 09 NOV 2022

Judge Advocate Facilities. Adequate facilities are needed for the proper administration and supervision of the Air Force's legal needs. Typical unique special purpose spaces include courthouse and legal libraries. See AF Legal Facilities Design Guide for facility design guidance.

Table 1.1. Typical Special Purpose Space Requirements for Judge Advocate (JA) Facilities.

Type of Space	Equivalent for JA Facilities	Office Type (see FC-6, CG-61 Admin Overview, Tables 1.2 and 1.2.1)
Private Office Space
Center/Wing Commander	(None)	A
Group Commander	Staff JA	B
Squadron Commander	Area Defense Council/Assistant JA/Circuit P Judiciary, Note 1	C
First Sergeant	Attorneys	D
Open Office Space
Supervisors/Equivalent	Supervisors/Equivalent	E
Standard	Court reporters, paralegals, staff, etc.	F
Limited Administrative	Site specific	G
Task Station	Site specific	H
Special Purpose Spaces – also see FC-6, CG-61 Admin Overview, Tables 1.3 and 1.4		m ²	ft ²
Waiting Room		See FC-6, CG-61 Admin Overview, Table 1.3
Reception Area		User Justified
Library		User Justified
Conference Room		See FC-6, CG-61 Admin Overview, Table 1.4
Courtroom		111	1,200
Courtroom Support Spaces		User justified
Discussion Room (for personnel/private and sensitive discussions), Note 3		6	64
NOTES: 1. When designated by AF/JA. 2. See AF Legal Facilities Design Guide for description of spaces. 3. 1 per 10 organizational personnel. No more than 4 discussion rooms are authorized per installation.			