Subject: USACE New Faces of Engineering and USACE Federal Engineer of the Year Awards for 2013

Applicability: Information

1. PURPOSE: This ECB highlights the USACE Federal Engineer of the Year and the five USACE New Faces in Engineering selectees for 2013.
2. Congratulations to Mr. Ronald Goldman, Vicksburg District, as the USACE Engineer of the Year for 2012, and as such is the USACE nominee for the 2013 National Society of Professional Engineers (NSPE) Federal Engineer of the Year award. He was selected based on his outstanding contribution to the field of engineering as Director of the Modeling, Mapping, and Consequences Production Center and will be recognized at a NSPE sponsored awards program on February 21, 2013 in Washington, D.C.
3. The top New Face in Engineering for USACE in 2013 is Ms. Rachel Coyner, EIT, a Project Engineer with the San Francisco District. Ms. Coyner will be recognized in USA Today newspaper during Engineer Week (February 17-23, 2013). Rachel Coyner and the other New Faces in Engineering for USACE are listed below. These New Faces of Engineering reflect the unique contributions provided by new engineers in USACE and will be recognized during Engineer Week on the EWEEK Foundation website: <http://www.eweek.org/>.
