

L. Parts Identification

1. Control valves, drain valves, and test valves are tagged with red on white metal identification signs. The control and drain valves are in the mechanical room on the north end of the building, first floor. Test valves are located behind access panels in walls of rooms at the southeast corner of the building.